Tomorrow evening in the First Presbyterian Church of West Berkeley, will be held the first Boy's Contest for a Demorest Silver Medal. Ice will come in smaller chunks in the pitchers of thirsty boarders after the 1st of the coming month. The three old ice companies of the city are now consolidated and the first thing they did on Monday was to boost the price of the commodity one-half cent a pound. The advance caused consternation among saloon and hotel keepers yesterday, but as all the ice companies are in the pool the consumers will be forced to accept the new tariff. A flattering reduction is made in orders of two and three tons, but saloon keepers and family hotels do not buy ice in such quantities and are, therefore, not benefitted by this burst of generosity on the part of the combine.

Since three bicycle stores have been opened here wheeling has taken a great boom. On pleasant days the streets are lined with wheels. The craze is not alone confined to the sterner sex, but the women folks are as numerous as the men.

Died From Hjs Injuries.

William Bynon, who was shot on Monday evening by R. F. Simpson, the Oakland contractor, during a fracas at the Red House, died yesterday morning.

Simpson, who was out on $5000 bonds at Martinez on a charge of assault to murder, was immediately taken into custody and will be held to await the action of the authorities.

An ante-mortem statement was taken by District Attorney Brown a few hours prior to Bynon's death, in which the dying man tried to make it appear that Simpson was the aggressor. Other witnesses who were examined, however, say that the Bynons had frequently expressed an intention of attacking Simpson should he persist in his efforts to enter the house and that the attack was premeditated.

A Chinese in a Predicament.

Wong Ging, a Chinese who, was arrested in August last for selling lottery tickets, is in a peculiar predicament through the defalcation of Police Court Clerk Lambert. When arrested the Celestial deposited $150 bail for his appearance in court when wanted. At his trial yesterday he was convicted and sentenced to pay a fine of $150. He offered evidence that he had deposited the same amount as bail and wanted to satisfy his fine with his bail money, but as Lambert had carried that money with him when he left there was nothing to satisfy the judgment of the court.

Though Judge Wood ordered Ging locked up there is a difference of opinion as to whether the city has a right to hold him or not, Chief of Police Shaefer, holding that the city will be liable for a suit for false imprisonment unless the Mongol is speedily released.

Sextriplets.

A well authenticated case of sextriplets is reported from Italy. A woman 36 years of age gave birth to six children, four of which were boys and two. All were born alive but died a few moments after birth. A year later she gave birth to healthy twins which lived.

According to Weather Forecast Official Hammon the storm has been the most severe since January. The barometer at Tatoosh island, near the mouth of Puget sound, has fallen to 29.6 degrees. A perfect hurricane is blowing off the mouth of the Columbia. At Fort Canby the wind is blowing at the rate of sixty miles an hour. The rain has extended south along the coast. At Los Angeles the rain has been coming down in torrents, but without any serious damage.

The People's party will hold a special meeting tonight in Mr. Good's store at the corner of Shattuck avenue and Dwight way for the purpose of selecting delegates to represent the Third Ward in the convention to be held on the 10th prox.

To Restrain Robinson.

About the most unique thing that the astute minds of the Southern Pacific legal bureau have evolved is a suit to enjoin Dr. Robinson and others from bringing any more "siop-over" suits for $200 each.

The complaint charges that Dr. Robinson and his friends have "unlawfully and fraudulently confederated, conspired and combined" to bring these suits.

It is alleged that Dr. Robinson has commenced 174 suits, his son, L. S. Robinson, 36, C. H. Loomis 68, T. T. D. Poole 90, W. N. Griswald 6, F. Heller 10 and A. Bretz 13 suits. The company claims that these persons were not bona fide passengers or ticket holders, but got on trains with the sole and only object to make a business of lodging fraudulent damage suits. The company has paid one judgement to Dr. Robinson and sets up the defense to payment upon any subsequent suits that by once paying it has satisfied all claims that could be made by Dr. Robinson. It is also alleged the others "who have conspired with him" had no right to stop over at Oakland. The company also sues for $5000 damages from each of the parties plaintiff. A temporary injunction was issued by Judge Sanderson.

One of the parties sued this morning said that it was the evident intent of the suit to put Dr. Robinson and the others to expense. The doughty dentist had, however, spent $5000 so far in fighting the "octopus." The points involved in regard to a second suit had practically been passed upon by the Supreme Court in holding that in each case there is a separate breach of contract. One of the appeal cases will come up shortly in the Superior Court. A number of the appeal cases are pending.

If the number of suits set forth in the complaint are correct the complaint are correct the company is liable for $95,800 besides costs upon the suits already brought.

A simple way of stopping suits would seem to be to grant the stop over privileges to which the courts have decided passengers are entitled.

The I. O. O. F. meet in regular session this evening.

The Nonpartisan Convention will be held at Odd Fellows Hall on next Saturday evening.

The Sons of Hermann are now arranging for their annual picnic, which takes place some time during April.

A lot of old Midwinter Fair buildings were being hauled today to Oak Grove, the coming resort of this and adjoining counties.

The body of the proprietor of the Red House was yesterday removed to Oakland and the funeral took place this afternoon.

A large number of Berkeleyites attended the funeral of the late L. M. Beaudrey today. Mr. Beaudrey, during his lifetime was very much identified with Berkeley.

NO NEED FOR FEAR.

Though Snakes were Plenty the Neighborhood was not a Local Option One.

I had some climbing to do along a rock front of the Pine Mountain for a mile or more, looking for an old line, and as it was hot weather and snakes were abundant, I had some little doubt as to the pleasure of the trip.

"How far is it?" I asked the native who was to act as my guide.

"'Bout a mile to the foot of the mountain, then up about four hundred yards."

"Do we have to walk all the way?"

"Do, but you can't ride a horse over them rocks up thar."

"Then we'll have to walk?"

"Over them rocks, in course."

"And snakes are plenty thar, aren't they?"

"A few rattlers, mebbe, and a copperhead or two, but no moccasins," he replied as pleasantly as if he were talking about ice cream and strawberries, but no cake.

"Well, I'm not particularly pleased with the prospect," I said, somewhat uneasily.

"Yain't afeared uv snakes, air yer?" he inquired in a friendly, half-scornful way.

"Just a shade, perhaps," I admitted.

"Well, yer needn't be, mister," he said, with a mingled feeling of pride and sublime confidence. "This ain't no local option neighborhood."—Detroit Free Press.

The mortality from influenza is still in the increase in London.

The amended liquor law for Berkeley has been signed by the Governor, which makes it a misdemeanor for any person to rent a building within one mile of the University for the sale or giving away of malt or fermented liquors. This will affect every club house and a number of the Professors' sideboards. Surely Legislation legislates in a horn.

Chas. F. Gompertz is at present the most popular candidate for Town Clerk. Mr. Gompertz has resided in Berkeley for the better portion of his life and is popular in every precinct. Against him is the present incumbent, Mr. Preble, and M. L. Hanscom, both gentlemen who are well known in Berkeley, both having been before the public.

J. W. Striker seem to be the most popular candidate at present in the field for Marshal. Mr. Striker during the past year has made a most efficient officer and there are but few who desire his removal. His only opponent is Dick Lloyd, a gentleman who has the confidence of the whole town and who is above reproach.

We desire to acknowledge the receipt of a complimentary ticket to the Demorest Silver Medal contest to be held at the West Berkeley Presbyterian Church on Friday evening, March 29th. The admission is only ten cents and there should be a large attendance.

The try-out field day, which was to have been held yesterday afternoon on the Berkeley cinder track, was postponed on account of the weather. The next athletic event of importance will be the freshman-sophomore field day on next Saturday afternoon.

Fred Smith and family had a narrow escape from death while driving Monday evening. The horse became frightened and dashed the buggy against the railroad track, breaking a wheel. He was finally stopped before doing much injury.

Simon Eilanger was yesterday granted a license by Cupid Jordan to wed Lillie Fish of Berkeley. The groom is 26 years of age and the bride 24. The wedding will take place tonight.

Issac W. Wells, the present incumbent in the assessor's office, is out once more for the same office. Mr. Wells has made a most efficient officer and he cannot be improved upon.

The inquest upon the body of Mr. Baynum, proprietor of the Red House in the adjoining county was commenced yesterday and was postponed until Friday at San Pablo.

Honest men are plentiful enough, no doubt; but they are so excessively modest, it is very difficult to find them.

Oh, no, the lawyer does not talk for effect; he simply talks for effects—the effects of his client—and he usually succeeds in getting them.

Fogg thinks that it is a mistaken policy which permits the sun to shine the most hours during the season when its rays are hardest to bear.

A little singular that passengers are not permitted to converse with the man at the wheel, notwithstanding he is the spokesman of the ship.

When Fogg's landlady is asked if she keeps boarders, she invariably says that she tries to. But she never does keep them for any length of time.

Mrs. Homespun, who has a terrible time every morning to get her young brood out of their beds, say she cannot understand why children are called the rising generation.

"I beg your pardon," said the mendicant, handing back the trade dollar, "but I am really in want, and if you have a penny to spare, it may be the means of saving me from starvation."

He that runs may read, but he that is running for the presidency does not probably avail himself of the privilege. If he did, he wouldn't feel flattered at much that is written about him.

Three Chicago children have been arrested and fined for stealing twenty-five pillows. Those twenty-five pillows were from a summer hotel, and were found concealed in one of the boys' vest pockets.

A friend in the suburbs has a gem of a servant girl. Her latest achievement was to use pain killer as a flavoring for ice cream. She builded better than she knew, and the bane and the antidote for stomach-ache were dished out at the same time. And yet that ice cream was not such as one would wish to partake of more than once.

DON'T LIKE IT.

Ben Morgan, who is the Berkeley representative of the People's Party, wrote a communication a few days ago to the Enquirer of Oakland, and that paper has the following to say:

It is very kind of Ben Morgan (of Berkeley) to write a letter to the people of Oakland, and publish it in a newspaper, telling them that their newly elected mayor is all right. "Cease to worry," says the thoughtful Morgan; "there is no cause for alarm." If we grant that this is perfectly true curiosity will still assail us to know who applied to Mr. Morgan (of Berkeley) for council and comfort. And why should Mr. Morgan (of Berkeley) believe that if anybody is nervous over Mr. Davie's election, a word from him (Morgan of Berkeley) will set their fears at rest? The person from Berkeley, as political adviser to the city of Oakland, magnifies his office unduly.

Davie is all right and the Enquirer might be in better business than to criticise either he or Ben Morgan.

TWO STREET RAILROAD BILLS.

The Governor has not only declined to approve Assembly bill 176, relating to the granting of franchises for street railroads, etc., but has written a special veto, in which he takes the ground that the change of expression "term of continuance" to "terms of continuance" alters the whole purport of the bill. The criticism is a very narrow one, if not far-fetched, since "terms of continuance" can hardly be synonymous with "terms of grant." The Governor might have found a better reason for disapproving the bill in its elimination of the second section of 1893, which attached a penalty to violation of the act. However, the bill is overboard, and that is all that need be said.

As to Assembly bill 702, the one which has created so much discussion, the Governor has been assailed with requests on the one side and remonstrances on the other, until he is excusable for taking the full time to consider it. The bill is certainly bad and dangerous in one respect, that of increasing the permissible rate of speed from eight miles an hour to twelve, and should have been killed at once on that account if on no other. Rapid transit in cities should not be weighed against certain danger to life and limb. There are street car accidents enough now, without increasing the risk by allowing an increase of 50 per cent in speed.

Had this city a charter of its own all such matters could be regulated here at home. Instead of providing for "cities of 100,000 inhabitants and over," the Legislature could pass general laws—that is, laws really and truly general in their scope and application—and leave the city to legislate for itself as to matters which concern us and nobody else. Then we should not have a Legislature and a Governor worrying over a street railroad bill for this city for fear of there being something crooked in it, for it would be out of their jurisdiction altogether.—S. F. Chronicle.
